

MWR LOGISTICS LLC

Maranda Witherspoon Richardson, CEO & Principal

Economically Disadvantaged Women-Owned Small Business - Transforming Lives · Engaging Community · Advancing Equity

13039 Midfield Terrace, Saint Louis, MO. 63146 · maranda@mwrconsultingservices.com · LinkedIn · +1 (314) 690-1519

MWR Consulting LLC (MWR) was established in 2015 and is a minority certified coach specializing in coaching, training and development, diversity, equity, inclusion + belonging strategies, and project management in the commercial, philanthropic, and government environment. As clients plan for an increased diverse workforce, our expertise in diversity, equity, inclusion +belonging ensures thoughtful and best practices are implemented to achieve the greatest impact. MWR's technical and content expertise includes public health, economic development, community engagement, health equity, leadership development, and workforce development.

COACHING

Coaching includes the use of best practices to help individuals unlock, elevate and embrace their gifts to create their own reality. Coaching incorporates both one-on-one and group sessions tailored to meet the needs of all team members.

TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT

MWR's work in training and development includes the design and facilitation of identified organizational needs to build capacities, set goals, and benchmark progress. Because of our tailored approach, clients are able to effect system-level change across operations and programs.

DIVERSITY EQUITY INCLUSION +BELONGING (DEI+B)

Diversity Equity Inclusion + Belonging includes designing curriculums, facilitating trainings and conducting organizational assessments to identify the tools needed to best support the client. Trainings incorporate facilitating conversations across teams, departments, and organization wide as well as identifying tangible strategies to advance DEI+B.

NAICS CODES

- 611430 Professional and Management Development Training

GENERAL INFORMATION

DUNS: 026198790

CAGE Code: 8MB73

